2. Loans, Renewals, and Charges

Undergraduates may borrow standard books for 28 days and renew twice when no hold exists. Course-reserve items loan for two hours and usually remain in the building.

The Library does not charge daily overdue fines for standard books. An item 30 days overdue is billed as lost at $75 plus a $15 processing charge. Returning the item within one year removes the $75 replacement charge but not the processing charge.

Laptop loans last four hours and cannot be renewed. A laptop returned more than 24 hours late may result in a seven-day equipment-loan suspension.

Item	Loan rule
Standard book	28 days; two renewals if no hold
Course reserve	2 hours; normally building use
Laptop	4 hours; no renewal

Covered drinks are allowed except near special collections and maker equipment. Hot meals are limited to the cafe area. Smoking, vaping, sleeping in emergency routes, and disruptive amplified sound are prohibited.

Library computers support academic use. Attempts to bypass security, install unauthorized software, or view another person's private records may be referred under the Academic Integrity Policy or information-security rules.

- Reservation hold: 15 minutes.
- Covered drinks allowed in most areas.
